

SMRP RE Knowledge Organiser for Year 3

Why do some people think life is like a journey?

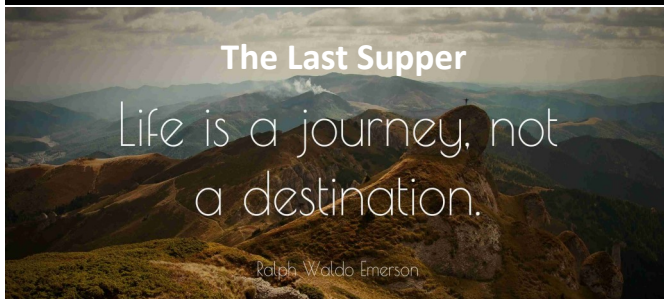

RE knowledge

Life is like a journey, with key milestones.

Different religions have different ways of marking the commitment of love and marriage.

There are different religious beliefs as to how we mark the end of life and what happens to us after death.

Baptism is an initiation ceremony in Christian beliefs. There are differences in the Christian church that have led to beliefs in infant and believer's baptism.

RE Vocabulary

Word	Definition
Life's journey	This is a metaphor. From Birth until the day we die, we say this is like a road where we experience so many lessons and milestones.
Baptism	A Christian ceremony whereby a sprinkling of water onto a person's head purifies and gives admission to the Christian Church.
Milestones	In life, a significant stage or development of something.
Commitment	To be dedicated to a cause, activity or person.
Ceremonies	A formal religious or public occasion that celebrates an event, achievement or anniversary.
Ritual	A religious or solemn ceremony consisting of a series of actions in a prescribed order.
Symbolic	Representation of an important change or a symbol that represents a person or a thing.
Significance	Being worthy of attention or importance.